Synagro Acquires the Assets of Dahm Enterprises, Inc., Expanding Services in the Illinois Region

Transaction Further Builds Municipal Relationships in the Area and Supports Geographic Expansion in Illinois.

BALTIMORE, Maryland, July 15, 2025 – Synagro Technologies, Inc., North America’s leading provider of sustainable solutions for biosolids, organics and residuals, today announced the acquisition of the assets of Dahm Enterprises, Inc., a trusted name in biosolids services in the Illinois region for more than 30 years.

“This acquisition expands our biosolids-management services and broadens our client base in the region,” said Ben Gilreath, Vice President, Corporate Development and Mergers and Acquisitions, Synagro. “We look forward to welcoming the Dahm Enterprises employees to the Synagro family.”

“We are pleased to work with Synagro on this transaction,” said Chris Dahm, President, Dahm Enterprises. “We appreciate our loyal customers and employees over the many years, and we look forward to a continuation of superior service from a trusted supplier with even greater capabilities by Synagro.”

This acquisition creates growth and value for both Synagro and Dahm by jointly providing superior service for customers and promoting circularity. With the most experienced team in the industry, Synagro leverages innovative technologies to provide its customers with beneficial use solutions. And as a family operated business, Dahm has built a reputation rooted in reliability, deep industry knowledge and strong local relationships with farmers and other small operators.

“Synagro is proud to honor the legacy of Chris and Bryan Dahm by continuing to serve customers throughout Illinois and Wisconsin,” said Nick Caggiano, Vice President, Regional Operations, Synagro. “This acquisition deepens our shared commitment to promoting the beneficial use of biosolids and broadens our service capabilities across the region.”
